

Code of Conduct for DE-SPACE 1.0

Welcome to DE-SPACE 1.0, hosted by Hackerspace! This open-source event is designed to foster collaboration, learning, and community engagement. To ensure a positive and inclusive experience for all participants, we have established this Code of Conduct. By participating in DE-SPACE 1.0, you agree to uphold these standards.

Purpose

The purpose of this Code of Conduct is to provide a guideline for respectful and constructive interactions within the DE-SPACE 1.0 community. It aims to create an environment where everyone feels welcome, supported, and able to contribute to open-source projects effectively.

General Guidelines

- Inclusive Environment: We are committed to providing a welcoming and inclusive environment for all participants, regardless of experience level, gender, ethnicity, or background. Treat all participants, mentors, and organizers with respect. Constructive feedback is encouraged, but criticism should be offered kindly and respectfully.
- Collaborative Spirit: This is a community-driven event, and participants are encouraged to collaborate, learn, and grow together.
- Professionalism: Conduct yourself in a professional manner. Communicate respectfully and thoughtfully, whether in person or online.
- Integrity: Be honest and transparent in your contributions. Acknowledge the work of others and give credit where it is due.

Unacceptable Behavior

- Harassment: Harassment, discrimination, or offensive comments related to gender identity, sexual orientation, disability, race, ethnicity, religion, or any other characteristic.
- Intimidation: Any form of intimidation, stalking, or following.
- Disruption: Disruptive behavior that interferes with the participation of others, including spamming, trolling, or interrupting discussions.
- Inappropriate Content: Posting or sharing content that is inappropriate, offensive, or illegal.
- Disrespect: Dismissive, derogatory, or unconstructive criticism towards other participants or their contributions.

If you experience or witness any behavior that violates this Code of Conduct, please report it immediately to the event organizers. Participants who violate this Code of Conduct may be subject to actions including warnings, expulsion from the event, or other appropriate measures.
